At a Glance
Your Department [of Extra-Mural Studies], which was instituted by the Court yesterday, is the most important of all our departments as far as public relations are concerned. Planned aright and if given full scope, your work will touch every section of the community, every stratum of our society; it is the most important means of explaining or making available to the masses the knowledge accumulated by the few.

-A congratulatory message delivered by Sir Lindsay Ride, the Vice-Chancellor of The University of Hong Kong, dated 22 May 1957.

The University of Hong Kong’s Department of Extra Mural Studies (DEMS) was established in 1956/57, the first continuing education unit in a university in the region. DEMS played a significant role in the provision of lifelong learning opportunities for the wider community. In 1992, it was renamed as the School of Professional and Continuing Education (HKU SPACE). The University has a recognised role in lifelong learning and, as the continuing education arm of the University, HKU SPACE fulfills this part of the University’s mission by providing learning opportunities for personal, professional and career advancement for people from all walks of life.

Our part-time programmes

The College of Business and Finance offers quality professional and continuing education to the business and financial sectors. Its comprehensive programmes range from short courses to postgraduate programmes in Accounting, Finance, Management Studies, and Marketing. The College also provides practical part-time programmes for working adult learners, including its featured Soft Skills series for Business Executives, as well as a wide range of full-time programmes for high school graduates at the HKU SPACE Community College, the HKU SPACE Po Leung Kuk Stanley Ho Community College, and the International College. To bring home to the public the latest issues in the business world, the College organises a range of professional seminars and forums throughout the year. The HKU SPACE Executive Academy (SEA) under the College offers high level, cutting edge executive education for the corporate sector.

The College of Humanities and Law is characterised by the diversity of its subject disciplines and the breadth of its course provision. It offers Law, Social Sciences, Arts, and Humanities courses in 18 subject areas, serving the needs of the economy, the community, and individual learners. The College offers award-bearing programmes at certificate, diploma, degree, and postgraduate levels. The Centre for Creative and Performing Arts is part of the College of Humanities and Law, which works closely with the College to enhance its existing art programmes.

The College of Life Sciences and Technology offers high-quality education and training through a comprehensive range of programmes from short courses to postgraduate programmes in Information Technology and Health & Applied Sciences. These programmes emphasise continuing professional development and are of high academic standing. Some of the programmes are related to professional qualifications and a number of them are recognised by the relevant professional bodies.

The Dietetic Clinic for Teaching and Research is a training centre for students taking courses on dietetics and nutrition. It also provides specialist dietetic consultation for the general public.

The College also includes the Division of Chinese Medicine which offers a variety of programmes that are suitable for both professional medical practitioners and the general public including Chinese Medicine, Chinese Medicine Pharmaceutics, Acupuncture and Tu-Na, Chinese Medicine Health Care and Rehabilitation, among others. Our Chinese Medicine Clinics and Pharmacies at Admiralty and Mei Foo Learning Centres serve primarily as clinical training centres for our Chinese Medicine programmes’ trainee sessions and also provide general and specialist consultations for the general public to support our educational programmes.

We organise our 51 subject groups under 9 major subject areas:
- Architecture, Environment & Housing
- Arts, Design & Culture
- Business
- Executive Education
- Languages
- Law
- Life & Health Sciences
- Social Sciences
- Technology, Engineering & Sciences

The Institute for China Business is positioned as an Innovative School of Business and Management with specialties, adopting a holistic approach to professional and executive education. The mission of ICB is to help create and grow business talents with world-class leadership and management skills in Mainland China.

Our full-time programmes

HKU SPACE has offered full-time programmes leading to sub-degree awards — Associate Degree, and Higher Diploma since the year 2000 when the School established the first Community College in Hong Kong. Sub-degree education provides an alternative study pathway for those secondary school graduates who could not enter university. Sub-degree graduates can have a second chance to continue their studies in a tertiary institution or start their career after graduation.

In 2003, the School established the International College (formerly Centre for International Degree Programmes) with the main objective to provide full-time top-up degrees for those Community College graduates who would like to pursue a bachelor degree awarded by public universities in the UK and Australia. The study programmes can be completed in Hong Kong without going overseas.
